

Welcome to Half Way Tree!

We do our best to recreate the true taste & vibe of Jamaica. We are named after a famous location in Kingston, Jamaica where "uptown" meets "downtown." The area originally got its name from a huge cotton tree that dominated the landscape until 1866. The tree was a major meeting point for travelers and traders coming to and from Kingston, Spanish Town, St. Thomas or St. Mary, who would stop to refresh themselves at one of the pubs or to haggle with other vendors. Today, even though the tree is gone, the junction is still a major transit point for commuters. We started our restaurant in January 2013 and in just 8 short months we built up a tremendous reputation for our authenticity, and even won "Best of Rhode Island" from Rhode Island Monthly Magazine. Sadly, we were left homeless, as our original location is being demolished. We now return with the same authentic Jamaican staff that helped build Half Way Tree from scratch. Thank you for your patronage & enjoy! Don't forget to like us on Facebook and check out our web site, HalfWayTreeRI.com.

Authentic Jamaican Patties
